

Kick off Breast Cancer Awareness Month with a paddle for the battle –to fight breast cancer.

Sunday, Oct. 1 • 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

$25 per person includes:

- canoe and paddles
- life jacket
- snacks and water
- transportation to the drop off location on the Hocking River

Paddle 7 miles to the Natural Rock Bridge where the famed naturalist, Paul Knoop (recipient of the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Ohio Environmental Council), will meet you for a guided historical tour. Those who choose not to paddle the river or those unable but want to participate, will be transported to the Natural Rock Bridge for the tour/hike and back to the Canoe Livery on Chieftain Drive.

Celebration of LIFE for survivors

Wear the craziest PINK canoe gear you have. We will auction off the chance to float the pink canoe down the river. There will be a 50/50 drawing and light refreshments after all have returned to the canoe livery.

Sign up by Sept 20. Download form:

Constance Barbini was co-founder of Hocking Valley Canoe Livery with Lew Barbini in 1976. Constance lost her battle with Breast Cancer in 2009. During her career, Constance worked in the Medical Lab at Fairfield Medical Center. Therefore, her family is raising money on behalf of the Fairfield Medical Center Foundation. Their hope is that these funds can help someone in some way who is battling this disease.

Additionally, the Family Fun Center Go Kart and Mini Golf participants that wear PINK that day will save 25% and all proceeds will go to the FMC Foundation.

50/50 raffle tickets also will be available at the Family Fun Center.
